Dear Shri Singh,

Subject: Post Graduate Diploma in Public Policy and Management at MDI

Greetings from MDI Gurugram.

I wish to draw your kind attention to the Post Graduate Diploma in Public Policy and Management (PGD-PPM) offered by the School of Public Policy and Governance, Management Development Institute (MDI), Gurugram and seek your support in soliciting participation of officers in this prestigious programme.

The School of Public Policy and Governance was set up by MDI in the year 2006 with support from Department of Personnel & Training (DoPT) to serve as a think-tank for improving public service delivery and public policy formulation and implementation. The PGD-PPM is a unique programme aimed at imparting professional and managerial skills to mid-career civil servants and till date has an alumni of nearly 200 civil servants from various services ranging from IAS to State services. It offers an eclectic blend of courses in the domains of public policy, governance and management. It is a 15 months residential programme with campus life at MDI and an international module for two weeks. Last year, the international module was done in collaboration with School of Public Policy at Maryland University. Details are in the attached brochure.

We are now seeking applicants for 2018-19 batch starting in Mid 2018. The DoPT Circular in this regard is also attached. We would request your help in enlarging the pool of participants from the various cadres at the state level and would request you to circulate information about this programme widely. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you need any further information.

Thanking you.

Warm regards,

(C.P. Shrimali)
